

You take the cash, go to the post office, and ask for a "bulletin de versement" which will look like this one

The image shows a Swiss 'bulletin de versement' form with four main sections: 'Empfangsschein / Récépissé / Ricevuta', 'Einzahlung Giro', 'Versement Virement', and 'Versamento Girata'. The form is pink and white. It contains the following text and fields:

- Top left: 'Empfangsschein / Récépissé / Ricevuta' with subtext 'Einzahlung für / Versement pour / Versamento per'.
- Top middle: 'Einzahlung Giro' with subtext 'Einzahlung für / Versement pour / Versamento per'.
- Top right: 'Versement Virement' with subtext 'Zahlungszweck / Motif versement / Motivo versamento'.
- Far right: 'Versamento Girata' with subtext 'Zahlungszweck / Motif versement / Motivo versamento'.
- Account numbers: 'Konto / Compte / Conto CHF 10-20729-4' in the first and second columns.
- Amounts: 'Einbezahlt von / Versé par / Versato' fields with '50' entered in the first and second columns.
- Bottom left: A QR code and '409000270 00010051'.
- Bottom center: 'Die Annahmestelle / L'office de dépôt / L'ufficio di accettazione'.
- Bottom right: '122570634>' and '122570634>'.

Red arrows point to the account number '10-20729-4' and the amount '50' in the first and second columns. Blue arrows point to the amount '50' in the first and second columns. Black arrows point to the 'Zahlungszweck' field in the top right and the bottom right area.

You will have to put the number 10-20729-4 in the appropriate spaces, put piano here

You name and address here

And : Association de Musique de Chambre (AUMC) here

And the amount (50) here

Then with the cash, you go to the counter and pay.